Community Hall Update: The official re-opening of the community hall will take place on Friday 20th September, at 10:00am. This is an open invitation with tea & coffee available up to Midday. Treasured Moments will follow at 2:00pm.

Due to the ongoing building works, there will be no SING, YND or Little Stars this week. Little Stars will be back on Wednesday 25th September. SING and YND will re-start after the summer on Thursday 26th September.

Costco Collections: We need some help with the Costco collection runs on the following dates: Thursday 19th September, Thursday 26th September. If anyone is able to help on either of those dates, can you please let the CO's know.

Corps Family News: Please continue to pray for members of our Corps family who are unwell or in need of support.

Flower List: Can people please put their name on the new flower list on the notice board.

Parking: Can people who are fully able please remember to leave spaces at the front of the hall for those who struggle with walking.

How the poor live

One day a father of a very wealthy family took his son on a trip to the country with the firm purpose of showing his son how poor people live. They spent a couple of days and nights on the farm of what would be considered a very poor family. On their return from their trip, the father asked his son, "How was the trip?" "It was great, Dad."

"Did you see how poor people live?" the father asked. "Oh yeah," said the son.

"So, tell me, what did you learn from the trip?" asked the father.

The son answered, "I saw that we have one dog and they had four. We have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden, and they have a creek that has no end. We have imported lanterns in our garden, and they have the stars at night. Our patio reaches to the front yard, and they have the whole horizon. We have a small piece of land to live on, and they have fields that go beyond our sight. We have servants who serve us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow theirs. We have walls around our property to protect us; they have friends to protect them."

The boy's father was speechless. Then his son added, "Thanks, Dad, for showing me how poor we are."
