Corps Family News

CO's will be on holiday from after the service on Christmas Day until 4th January inclusive.

Please pray for members of our Corps family who are unwell or in need of support during this festive season.

Hall Crockery Amnesty: Can you please check your kitchen cupboards at home to see if you have any bowls, plates etc that belong to the hall. If you do find any, can you please return them, as we seem to be missing a few. Many thanks.

Flower List

Can people please put their name on the new flower list on the Notice Board.

Parking

Can people who are fully able please remember to leave spaces at the front of the hall for those who struggle with walking.

BIBLE VERSE - God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Psalm 46:1-2

THOUGHT - What a world this would be if we could forget our troubles as easily as we forget our blessings. Diane Aschoff

SMILE - Caring is a powerful force. Frank Reed

Your Prince of Peace

Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom His favour rests. — Luke 2:14 NIV

Does your heart yearn for peace? The hectic nature of Christmas sometimes inspires more weariness, conflict, loneliness, and feelings of unworthiness than the joy promised by the angels at Christ's birth. The tumult within your spirit and unfulfilled dreams may leave you longing for rest. But be assured, your Saviour desires to give you genuine tranquility in the midst of all the pressures of the season (John 14:27).

Friend, you will feel exhausted and overwhelmed when you believe everything depends on you. But Christ calms your soul by taking full responsibility for your needs as you obey Him. You'll find peace when you trust Him, because you're assured that the One who is best able to give you the victory in every situation will never leave or forsake you.

So when you feel overwhelmed, stop and spend time with your Prince of Peace.

Then rejoice in the fact that He's got everything under control (Psalm 103:19). Truly, He is always ready, willing, and able to help you (Psalm 46:1).

Jesus, thank You for being my Prince of Peace and giving me true rest. You are the joy of my soul forever, amen.

In His Presence... be at peace.
